This is a great song for reflecting on the commitment of our Creator YAHUAH to His children - that He will dwell with them and be their Alahym, and they will indeed be His people.

20 FEATURED BOOK
SUKKOTH SPECIAL

Free e-book from our ministry about Sukkoth, to inspire prayer and reflection in this season and the next.

This magazine release comes as we celebrate a special time of the year, established by our Heavenly Father, 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 (YAHUAH). We are grateful for His continued favor, as He has brought us into yet another season. We are now approaching the SEVENTH Scriptural month, during which we celebrate the Appointed Times looking forward to the return of the Messiah and the fulfillment of His promise: "Where I am, there you will be also!" He wants to DWELL WITH US, His people!

Editor's Note

The Way of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 Magazine is committed to sharing the Word and edifying the Body of Messiah by sharing motivational, informative, and insightful pieces, rooted in Scriptural Truth. We also use this platform to share the work of other believers devoted to the Way!

Although we believe that every child of YAH is moved by His Spirit, we also understand that given our sinful human nature, we are not yet perfect! Like our Messiah said, "No one is good except One – Alahym" (Mat 19:17). We passionately seek after His Way, and we trust the Author of Our Faith to perfect us! We are all called to walk before 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 Alahym and be blameless (Gen 17.1). This is our goal and our mission, as we follow the Way of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄.

In this edition of The Way of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 e-magazine, we focus on the Father's plan to establish His everlasting kingdom through His Son, 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤔𐤏 (YAHUSHUA) Messiah. Before His ascension, Messiah promised that He would go to prepare a place for us, so that where He is, there we will also be. He is waiting for the appointed time to come for His Bride - the Body of Messiah - the faithful ones who keep the commands of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 (YAHUAH) and who have the witness of Messiah, according to Rev 12:17 and 14:12.

This edition is timed to focus on the prophetic purpose of this season! The Scripture sets out a series of annual celebrations (called moediim or appointed times in Leviticus 23). These celebrations teach profound truths about the Creator's plan to deliver His people. In the end, He will do everything He promised. It is all about the Father's plan to dwell with His people, to be our Alahym as we become His people forever, in the eternal covenant. This is why the highlight of the season is Sukkoth, which is seven days of rejoicing, looking backward to the time when Messiah came to dwell with us and forward to the time when we will dwell with Him forever in His Kingdom!

May our Loving Father, who is most merciful, continue to bless us, keep us, and make His face shine upon us (Num 6:22-27).

DWELL WITH US

"And I will make My Dwelling Place among you, and My soul will not despise you. I will walk among you and be your Alahym, and you will be My people."

- Uayyiqra (Leviticus) 26:11-12

Since the beginning of time, the Father 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 (YAHUAH) has sought to dwell among His people. The whole purpose of creating humans was to share His life with others. He created a people who were called to walk in the light, as He is in the light. (Isa 2:5 and 1Jn 1:7) Yet, all through time we have seen humanity rebel against this call, to walk in the light of the Creator. Instead, the world has been descending into darkness, as the enemy of our souls, Satan, tries to pull away as many people as would allow him to have his way in their life.

Despite the global rebellion led by Satan for the past 6,000 years, from the days of Adam even to this day, 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 has a plan to save those who want to choose a different path from the one that is leading the world to sure destruction.

Messiah 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤔𐤏 (YAHUSHUA) came to earth 2,000 years ago, to walk with us and to show us the way back to 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄. He declared: "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life; no one comes to the Father–except through Me!" ((Joh 14:6)

𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 walked with Adam and his wife, Chuah (called 'Eve'), in the Garden of Eve. After the serpent led Chuah and then Adam astray, by enticing them into sinning against the Word of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄, the Father 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 made a promise. He said that He would send "enmity" between the seed of the serpent and the Seed of the woman, and in the end, the Seed of the woman would crush the head of the serpent.

Obliterating the serpent will put an end to his schemes, and humanity will no longer be led astray and enticed into sin, which separates us from 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄. Access to the Tree of Life, which was lost due to sin, will be restored, when sin is finally cleansed from the Earth.

Ḥazon (Revelation) contains many promises of a restoration. These include restoring access to the Tree of Life, but beyond that, we look forward to the great promise that the Creator Himself will set up His Dwelling Place in our midst. This is the Greatest Promise of all time!

There is a difference between 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 walking with His people and 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 dwelling with His people. We have seen examples of this all through time. In Berĕshith (Genesis) 3:8, we see that the Father was "walking" in the Garden. Again, we see in Berĕshith (Genesis) 5:22-24, that Hanoch walked with 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄. However, something far more dramatic happens in the days of Mosheh, when the Father came to deliver His people from bondage. The cloud rested above them during the day and the fire by night. Here, the Father 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 was walking with His people, even though the earthly Dwelling Place or Tabernacle was not yet set up.

Shemoth (Exodus) 25 sets out the call given to Moshe to build a tabernacle (Dwelling Place), not based on a new design but built according to the pattern that was shown to him on the mountain: the True Tabernacle in heaven. (Ex 26:30) This is the same Tabernacle seen multiple times in Ḥazon (Revelation) 11:19, 14:15-17 and 15:5.

However, there is another Tabernacle that the Scripture speaks about: the tabernacle of the Body! The Messiah 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤔𐤏 taught that He is the Dwelling Place of the Living Alahym, and He prophesied that after being killed, He will rise again in 3 days. (Mar 9:31) Yoḥanan (John) 1:14 says: "The Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us." He was referring to the time when Messiah 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤔𐤏 came as a newborn in the seventh Scriptural month. He lived on this Earth for 33 years before His death, burial, resurrection, and ascension. Messiah promised His followers that He is going to prepare a place for them, so that where He is, there we will be also. (Joh 14:2-3) The messengers who were with Messiah's followers promised that He will return the same way that He left–in a cloud! (Act 1:11 & Mat 24:30)

Upon His return, Messiah will call to life those who sleep in Him in the first resurrection and those who are alive will be caught up with Him in the air, and together they will be forever–the Bridegroom and the Bride. They will reign together for a thousand years. After the Millennial Reign, Satan and all those powers and people who served him will be destroyed for good! The Earth will be cleansed and renewed, and the Son will hand over the reign to the Father.

This final chapter paves the way for the fulfillment of the Greatest Promise: I will dwell among the Yasharalites and be their Alahym. This was partially fulfilled with the coming of the Messiah 2,000 years ago, but the final fulfillment will come soon, when Rev 21:3 comes to pass: "Behold, the Dwelling Place of Alahym is with man, and He will dwell with them. They will be His people, and Alahym Himself will be with them as their Alahym."

A SPECIAL TIME FOR CHILDREN

As this time of the year, when we celebrate Sukkoth or Tabernacles, the Words of Messiah YAHUSHUA in Mat 19:14 take on new life: "Let the little children come to Me, and do not hinder them! For the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

The greatest responsibility that parents have is to do their utmost best to raise their children in the way of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄. The very verse that inspired the name of this magazine stresses this. Almighty YAH said of Abraham: "For I have chosen him, so that he will command his children and his household after him to keep the way of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 by doing what is right and just, in order that 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 may bring upon Abraham what He has promised."

Almighty YAH had a deal with Abraham; and He has kept His Word to this very day! In Luke 12:32, Messiah says: "Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom."

𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 created the heavens, the earth, the sea, and all that is within them. He created a world where humanity can dwell and rule over the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, and the beast of the field. 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 wants to restore creation to a perfect state. Today, He is seeking faithful sons and daughters to dwell with Him in this renewed heaven and renewed earth.

Parents should remember that their first responsibility is to prepare their children for the kingdom. If possible, this preparation should start from the womb, as the child takes shape to become a new individual.

When a child is born in the Way of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄, that child has a special advantage, because the blessings and covering of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 remain on that child from a young age. Keeping that covering may prove to be very challenging as a child grows to become a teenager and young adult. This is the time when we need to double down in fervent prayer and speaking life to them through the Word of the Most High 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄. We have to be like Job and not give up on them even when they are rebellious. 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 is able to deliver them!

WATCH & PRAY

"But watch yourselves, or your hearts will be weighed down by dissipation, drunkenness, and the worries of life–and that day will spring upon you suddenly like a snare. For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of all the earth. So keep watch at all times, and pray that you may have the strength to escape all that is about to happen and to stand before the Son of Adam."

– Luqas (Luke) 21:34-36

The seventh month on the Creator's Calendar reminds us of the vital importance of standing prayerfully in these last days. Luqas (Luke) in chapter 21 outlines for us some very important warnings and signs of the end of this age. This aligns well with the narrative in MattithYahu (Matthew) 24, which also gives the signs of the times.

Among these signs we see wars as well as persecutions, as nation rises up against nation and kingdom against kingdom. We also see "great earthquakes" in different places, scarcities of food and deadly diseases. However, this is still not the end. There will also be "horrors" and great signs from heaven.

Luke adds: "...they shall lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the congregations and prisons, being brought before sovereigns and rulers for My Name's sake." As Rev 12:17 says, "And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to fight with the remnant of her seed, those guarding the commands of Alahym and possessing the witness of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤔𐤏 Messiah. The enemy persecutes the woman because he was cast out of heaven and down to the earth; he knows his days are numbered and he has little time left (Rev 12:12), so he goes about like a roaring lion, seeking to devour the children of the Most High YAH.

Messiah 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤔𐤏 says, "This will be your opportunity to serve as witnesses. So make up your mind not to worry beforehand how to defend yourselves. For I will give you speech and wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict." (Luke 21:13-15)

Then He warns that even our relatives will betray us and hand us over to our enemies, and sadly, some believers will be put to death. But He warns that we should be patient and endure, because not even a hair of our head will perish. Instead, those who are faithful to death will gain their souls. There is the assurance of the first resurrection for those who are killed or who die before Messiah's return.

The central message in this chapter is not that terrible things will happen before Messiah's return; it is that all believers should stand firm and faithful, no matter what the enemy throws their way. Even if the enemy kills us, Messiah said we should not fear them who can kill the body only, but that we should fear Him who can destroy the body and the soul in GěHinnom. (Matt 10:28)

This is why in Luke 21, we are reminded that, "By your patient endurance you will gain your souls." Messiah asks in Mark 8:36-37: "What does it profit a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul?"

This will be the big question when the mark of the beast is enforced. Many will take the mark because they are given an ultimatum: take the mark or lose your ability to buy and sell. Buying and selling has become a necessity in this world. People need to feed their families, pay their bills, and meet their financial commitments, and being locked out of the financial system will mean that they will be unable to do these financial transactions.

A crisis is coming, and this is why we need to know the Word of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 and stand firmly on it. Those who receive the mark of the beast may appear for a little while to be prospering; but they, too, will be unable to live in prosperity. In fact, the plagues will soon afterwards be poured out on them. The first one will be the boils of Egypt, which is a clear consequence to receiving the mark and worshiping Satan by obeying his decrees. (Rev 16:2)

Messiah 𐤉𐤔𐤅𐤏 reminds us that we need to discern the signs of the times. He used the fig tree as a lesson, saying that when they sprout leaves, this signals that summer is near; so too when we see the signs of the times, we should know that the Kingdom of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 is near! (Luk 29-33)

He reminds us to, "watch yourselves, or your hearts will be weighed down by dissipation, drunkenness, and the worries of life—and that day will spring upon you suddenly like a snare." (Luk 21:34) He says we should keep watch at all times, and pray that we may have the strength to escape all that is about to come upon the earth, and to be able to stand before Him when He returns. (Luk 21:36)

Mark reinforces this message in chapter 13. He says: "No one knows about that day or hour, not even the messengers in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Be on your guard and stay alert! For you do not know when the appointed time will come. It is like a man going on a journey who left his house, put each servant in charge of his own task, and instructed the doorkeeper to keep watch. Therefore keep watch, because you do not know when the master of the house will return—whether in the evening, at midnight, when the rooster crows, or in the morning. Otherwise, he may arrive without notice and find you sleeping. And what I say to you, I say to everyone: Keep watch!"
(Mark 13:32-37)

In the Hebraic reckoning of time, the day is divided into three-hour blocks. The night is divided into four watches, starting at twilight, when one day transitions into another. If sunset is 6:00 p.m., the night watches are (i) 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., (ii) 9:00 p.m. to 12:00 p.m., (iii) 12:00 p.m. to 3:00 a.m., and (iv) 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. It was during the fourth watch that Messiah went out to meet His followers at sea. (Mat 14:25) The daytime hours are divided to align with the morning and evening sacrifices. Messiah hung on the stake from the sixth to the ninth hour, as darkness fell upon the earth.

The watches and times of prayer set a daily rhythm for believers (see Dan 6:10) and followers of the Way of 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄. Each day, they help us to focus on prayer and worship, and they will become even more vital in the last days, to enable us to stand firm in the faith.

The message could not be any clearer. Those who have ears need to hear what the Ruach (Spirit) of Messiah is saying to the Bride! WATCH AND PRAY! Do not be so carried away with the cares of this life that you forget the value of this very important commandment. It is a commandment from the mouth of the Master 𐤉𐤔𐤅𐤏 Himself: WATCH AND PRAY!

Dwell With Us!

"For this reason, they are before the throne of Alahym and serve Him day and night in His temple; and the One seated on the throne will spread His Dwelling Place over them."
(Revelation 7:15)

Lyrics from Rev 7:14-17.
From the album, 'Day and Night'.
Music by James Block.

This song is a passionate appeal to our Creator 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 to return to dwell with His people. This is a call from the Bride to the Bridegroom, as she awaits His soon return. We are reminded of the Greatest Promise to humanity: that the Almighty 𐤉𐤄𐤅𐤄 will set things right, and He will be our Alahym as we are fully His people.
